Newsletter No.1/2020

Hello again!

Thank you for your email information – now we can start having a proper conversation.

We constantly add new artists to our website and from time to time will focus on specific ones to promote on a bi-monthly basis, starting in April 2020.

What we would like to do is keep you up to date with developments of these marvellous creative people and give you the opportunity to own some of their art.

In the past visitors to our open studios have not always bought the art that they desired because

- It was either too large for the space they had in mind
- Too large for transportation if they lived elsewhere
- It had the wrong frame
- It was too expensive—or not regarded as a good investment
- And various other reasons...

What we would like to offer you every second month – during a small window of time! – is the opportunity to buy at a discounted price, a limited edition print of the work that you love, individually signed and numbered by the artist.

At the same time there will be a FREE promotional gift – or two – when you click on the BUY button! These free gifts will vary from artist to artist and will always be exciting.

When this promotional window closes, you will still be able to buy the print – or perhaps the original artwork – but at the normal retail price and the free gift(s) will fall away.

So, the good news is that you can still 'visit' the artists in their studios, but the trend now is doing it virtually – on-line! All you need to do is go to the website and look at their work from the comfort of your armchair. Great, isn't it?

It's called armchair surfing!

We would truly like your feedback so that we can improve your experience. This promotional offer will only be available through our website.

Let's talk!

Genuine relationships are built through conversation.

You are getting this letter because you have signed one of our visitors' books when visiting open studios in the past — we thank you!
